

Artist Statement

I have been involved in art sketching, oils in younger years. Been doing primarily watercolor the past 10 years. Born in Illinois and migrated to Idaho and am now living in both states. Last summer I took Amtrak to Chicago with others, including my sister, to visit the Chicago Institute. Met my grandson for a walk along shoreline drive. This made me think of painting the Chicago cityscape. Which I did and the results are here for this show.

- Eliene Huber