

Artist Statement

For this mixed media piece, I used a photograph that I took at the Raptor Rehabilitation Center that used to be in Quincy. I started this piece with a charcoal pour technique and placed the drawing that I did into a “quiet” area of the composition. Then I used colored paper from magazines for the red stripes and some of the feathers. Watercolor paint was used for the rest of the feathers and the blue swish.

- Kathy Hyer