

InkTober

Drawing Prompts for October 1 - 8, 2021

Join us for a month full of creative, and at times spooky, drawing activities!

New, weekly prompts available each week at the Quincy Art Center and Quincy Public Library. These prompts are designed to encourage daily habits of creativity, artistic challenges, and community exploration. All ages are welcome to participate.

Check in weekly with your InkTober drawings at QAC or QPL for your chance to win an Art Center gift certificate! Visit quincyartcenter.org for more details and for printed versions of the weekly prompts.

Welcome to the first week of InkTober! Here are your set of prompts for this week. You may create your prompts in the squares provided, use a separate sheet of paper, or draw in your sketchbook. We can't wait to see what you create! Remember to tag the Quincy Public Library and The Art Center when you post your drawings on social media!	1 Draw a self-portrait of you as your favorite book character or in your favorite art style.	2 Draw a grave stone. Did you know? The Historical Society of Quincy does tours of Woodlawn Cemetery in October. Visit hasqac.org for more detail and tickets.
3 Design a theatre Playbill. Go see the Quincy Community Theatre's production of Junie B. Jones is Not a Crook. Visit 1qct.org for more detail and tickets.	4 Draw your favorite fall animal.	5 Draw your favorite soup to eat on a cold day. Did you know? Today is "Do Something Nice Day", visit Horizon Soup Kitchen at horizonsquincy.com to see how you can help do something nice.
6 Draw your favorite thing about fall.	7 Draw something from around your room.	8 Design a corn maze. Did you know? Mill Creek Farm has a corn maze waiting to be explored every weekend in October. millcreekfarmquincy.com