

Inktober

Drawing Prompts for October 16 - 22, 2021

Join us for a month full of creative, and at times spooky, drawing activities!

New, weekly prompts available each week at the Quincy Art Center and Quincy Public Library. These prompts are designed to encourage daily habits of creativity, artistic challenges, and community exploration. All ages are welcome to participate.

Check in weekly with your Inktober drawings at QAC or QPL for your chance to win an Art Center gift certificate! Visit quincyartcenter.org for more details and for printed versions of the weekly prompts.

<h3>QPL Pumpkin Contest</h3> The Quincy Public Library is hosting a Book Character Pumpkin Decorating Contest. Decorate a pumpkin (or gourd) as a book character or literary theme and drop it off at the Children's Desk between October 20 - 23. Or, come out to the Library at 10 am, October 23, for QPL's Pumpkin Decorating Program! Visit quincylibrary.org for more detail.	16 Today is "Sweetest Day"! Draw your favorite sweet treat.	17 Draw a bonfire.
18 Draw coffee art. This could be a cup of coffee, the art inside a cup of coffee, or drawing/painting with coffee.	19 It's time for some self reflection. Draw a flower that represents you. Did you know, Cornerstone Foundation for Families has a compassionate team that helps the Quincy area meet life's challenges. Visit cornerstone-quincy.org for more.	20 Full Moon! Draw the moon or your favorite crystal.
21 Draw an item that is destined to be thrown away.	22 Draw your future self. The Quincy area not only has great colleges and universities, but it also has other great workforce solutions. Check out the Great River Economic Development Foundation at gredf.org to explore career paths in the area.	<h2>Mobile Library!!!</h2> With your help, we can expand access to invaluable library resources with a new and improved Mobile Library! Visit quincylibrary.org/mobile-library to get involved.