

InkTober

Drawing Prompts for October 9-15, 2021

Join us for a month full of creative, and at times spooky, drawing activities!

New, weekly prompts available each week at the Quincy Art Center and Quincy Public Library. These prompts are designed to encourage daily habits of creativity, artistic challenges, and community exploration. All ages are welcome to participate.

Check in weekly with your InkTober drawings at QAC or QPL for your chance to win an Art Center gift certificate! Visit quincyartcenter.org for more details and for printed versions of the weekly prompts.

Upcoming Classes at The Art Center Sketchbook Making (All Ages), Wednesday, October 13, 6 - 7 pm, $9 A Thousand Words: Workshop with Len Davis (High School - Adults), Tuesday, November 9, 6:30 - 8:30 pm, $65 Upcoming Exhibits at The Art Center Mary S. Oakley & Lee Lindsay Artist Showcase, open to artist 18 years+ Artwork drop-off: Nov. 2,3,4,&6 Exhibit Opens: Nov. 19 48th Annual High School Exhibit, open to artist 9th - 12th grade Artwork drop-off: Date in January TBD more info at quincyartcenter.org	9 Draw a produce still life or cornucopia. Did you know? The Quincy Farmers Market's has a bounty of produce, flowers, and hand-crafted items available every Saturday. thedistrict.com/famers-market/	10 Design a mural for a building. Have you seen all 24 murals throughout Quincy? Explore the works of local artists as you drive around town.
11 Draw your favorite folklore or fairytale.	12 Design a sculpture. Check out Arts Quincy's Celebration of Education Sculpture Series that features 8 amazing sculptures at our areas schools. artsquincy.org	13 Have a friend or family member draw a shape (circle, square, blob, and more) then you turn it into a person, animal, or object. Do this as many times as you want!
14 Draw an everyday item.	15 Draw a classic car. Today is the Early Tin Dusters Car Show! Visit earlytindusters.com for more information about this evenings event.	Share your creativity! Remember to tag the Quincy Public Library, @quincylibrary, and The Art Center, @quincyartcenter, when you post your drawings on social media. We will collect and share your creations with the community!