This exhibit is a juried competition. All artworks submitted will undergo a selection process conducted by a sole juror. This juror is a professional from outside the eligible region with expertise in the visual arts. The juror selects 100 pieces to go on for final display in the exhibit. Not all artworks entered will go on to be exhibited.

Meet our Juror:

Pattie Chalmers received her BFA in printmaking from the University of Manitoba in Canada, and her MFA in ceramics from the University of Minnesota. She has exhibited in group exhibitions on five continents, in six countries and thirty-six states and over the past ten years has had eight solo exhibitions, most recently Hinterland at Silverwood Park in Minneapolis.

Chalmers is a Professor at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale where she is also the Head of Graduate Studies and runs the ceramics program.
